(Special Dispatch to The Times.) UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Sept. 10.—One of the smartest weddings of the early fall was that this morning of Miss Alice Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James William Warren and Mr. J. George Smith, a prominent society man of St. Paul, Minn. The event took place at "Gowanlea," the pretty country home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren, near Jefferson Park Hotel. The rooms of the spacious residence had been tastefully decorated with ferns and potted plants, and the scene was a delightful one. One of the most striking features of the decorations was that of the stairway, the rail of the baluster having been wound with trailing green and thickly studded with daisles and golden-rod, forming as it were a floral chain from top to bottom.

At half after nine, the hour set for the nuptials, the bridal party com-menced to form in the upper hall, to the strains of Wagner's bridal march from Lohengrin, rendered by musicians sta-tioned in the lower hall.

The bride, charmingly robed in a gown of rich ivory satin, trimmed with duchess lace, and tulle veil, caught with a diamond sunburst, the gift of the groom and carrying bride's roses, entered the drawing-room with her father, preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Edith Van Ness Warren, who was daintily gowned in white organdic claborately trimmed with Valenviennes lace over pink taffeta. and carried pink roses. Tomato Canneries Running at Night to Keep Up With Demands.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

DUNNSVILLE, VA., Sept. 10.—At the County Fair, just over, in the farmers' exhibit I saw fifty-three varieties of cereals and vegetables grown on a single farm, and that farm managed largely by ladies.

by ladies.

The tomat crows is a large one, and the canning factories are running under heavy pressure to handle the stock. Some of them are under such heavy pressure as to be under the necessity of running at night.

The oyster season is now on, and I learn that they are poor, but plentiful. Prices are high and are likely to be higher, w. a all indications pointing to a naving season.

Feruna except an improvement of the disease, and once introduced into the home, it nearly always stays.

The experience of Mr. Burress, of Indiana, with the use of Peruna in the cure of his little child Helen, is an experience that has been repeated many thousand times throughout the length and breadth of the United States.

If your child is sick and you hardly know what the trouble is, you may be quite sure that catarrh in some form or phase is at the bottom of it. If this be true, Peruna will be sure to bring relief. It is well worth giving a trial.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Foruma, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable ad-

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—President Fowler, of the New York, Ontario and West-ern Asilroad Company, said to-day: "The coal strike will end when the men come back of their accord and on the terms on which they worked before the outbreak of the strike. In no other man-ner can this strike be ended. We will brook no outside interference of whatever nature, political, humanitarian or of any other origin. When the men go back it will be at the wages and on the conditions obtaining last spring."

President Olyphant, of the Delaware and Hudson, said that if he was well informed, and he thought he was, there would be no interference on the part of Mr. Morgan. Mr. Olyphant said no outside influences would be heeded and that the strike would continue until the miners got tired of it and returned to work.
John Markle, the had of the firm of G. B. Markle & Co., to-day said: here will be no arbitration and no settlement.
